

Counting Strikes

How strikes are counted

at least by UFCstats (ex FightMetric)

Strikes are counted to provide data for more complex metrics e.g. rate & accuracy.

range - power - target - landed (objective) (subjective) (objective) (objective)

- distance
- clinch
- ground

- power
- non-power

- head
- body
- legs

- attempted
- landed

Providing for 36 measures

e.g. clinch-power-body-attempted, or ground-power-head-landed

significant strikes

“ significant strikes refer to all strikes at distance and power strikes in the clinch and on the ground. It does not include small, short strikes in the clinch and on the ground. Those will be included in the Total Strikes category.”

attacks?

No distinction between punches, slaps, kicks, knees, elbows etc.

A power strike landed is a....
& if it lands in the right place.
